

failed products data sheet

| s.no | name of the product                              | area of field and year    | reason for failure                                                                                                                                  | fix for failure product                                                                               |
|------|--------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1    | amazon fire phone                                | smartphone industry ,2014 | due to poor design,high price and It did not offer as many apps as competitor devices                                                               | reduce the cost and redesign the mobile to make it able to compete with other competitor devices      |
| 2    | google plus                                      | social media,2011         | due to its complex user interface and lack of differentiation form facebook                                                                         | make it more user-friendly and different from the competitor app like facebook                        |
| 3    | microsoft zune                                   | a media player, 2006      | Microsoft's portable media player was intended to compete with the iPod but failed due to poor marketing, limited features, and strong competition. | introduce some new features and make it different form other media players.advertise the product more |
| 4    | HP touchpad                                      | tablet,2011               | due to its lack of apps, poor performance, and WebOS software that couldn't compete with Apple's iOS or Android.                                    | introduce more apps*, optimize and debug the os for a better user-friendly environment and to         |
| 5    | The Karma, operated with GoPro's Hero4 and Hero5 | drone industry,2017       | some drones fell during flight when the battery compartment door popped open. it only had 15 minutes of flying time.                                | make the build quality of drone more strong make a better battery with more battery life              |
| 6    | apple newton                                     | smartphone industry ,1993 | due to its high price, bulky design, and unreliable handwriting recognition technology.                                                             | make the design more slim and thin. make it a little more affordable                                  |
| 7    | Sony Betamax                                     | media player,1975         | due to higher costs, shorter recording times, and limited movie studio support, despite having superior picture quality.                            | make more affordable and optimize for wide movie studio support , longer video recordings             |

|   |             |                |                                                                                   |                                                 |
|---|-------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| 8 | GOOGLE ALLO | messaging,2016 | The fragmentation of Google's messaging strategy has limited SMS and AI features. | concentrate more on supporting the SMS features |
|---|-------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|

successful products data sheet

| s.no | name of the product          | area of field and year            | reason for success                                                                                   | uses                                                                                                      |
|------|------------------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1    | AWS(AMAZON WEB SERVICES) | (AMAZON CLOUD COMPUTING PLATFORM) | RELIABILITY , VAST OFFERINGS & CLOUD COMPUTING, CONTRIBUTING SIGNIFICANTLY TO AMAZON'S PROFITABILITY | DATA STORAGE AND DATABASEMACHINE LEARNING AND AI DEVELOPER TOOLS(CODE PIPELINE & CLOUD FORMATION) |
| 2    | UBER                         | TRANSPORTATION                    | INNOVATIVE PRICING MODELS,USE OF GPS FOR TRACKING & HIGHLY POPULAR                                   | RIDE-SHARINGFOOD DELIVERYCOURIER SERVICES                                                         |
| 3    | SPOTIFY                      | MUSIC STREAMING PLATFORM          | AFFORDABLE AND LEGAL ALTERNATIVE TO PIRACY                                                           | ARTIST AND ALBUMEXPLORATION MUSICQUALITY & CUSTOMISATION                                          |
|      |                              |                                   |                                                                                                      |                                                                                                           |